

ARRESTED AT THE STATE CAMP.

TWO ALLEGED THIEVES LOCKED UP FOR ROBING MEMBERS OF TROOP C.

Detective-Sergeant Valley and Detective O'Connor, of the Central Office, were sent up to the State Camp at Peekskill on Friday by Captain O'Brien, to watch for crooks there. When Valley returned to Police Headquarters yesterday he reported two arrests made by him and O'Connor. On Friday morning Colonel Story told the detective that a diamond ring had been stolen from William A. Porter, of Troop C, Brooklyn, and a gold watch and chain from Corporal Weiman, of the same troop.

The detective suspected William A. Jones, a colored man, of No. 32 West Sixty-fourth-st., who was employed as a servant in the street occupied by the troop. Valley gave orders that Jones be made to carry a carbine all day Saturday, so that he could not pass the sentinel if he wanted to leave the camp to get rid of the ring. The detective then stationed himself at the foot of Deadhead Hill, where soldiers occasionally make a secret retreat from the camp. Jones and another negro, named William Sanford, thirty years old, of No. 23 West Sixty-second-st., who was also employed in Troop C's street, were captured leaving the camp by way of Deadhead Hill, and were placed under arrest.

The diamond ring that was stolen was found in a box of shoe polish, that Jones had in his pocket. Both Weiman's watch and chain were found in Sanford's possession. Both prisoners were arraigned before J. L. Halstead, Justice of the Peace at Peekskill, and held for trial.

DAMAGED BY SUNDAY NIGHT'S STORM.

The cupola of a house at No. 52 West End-ave., was struck by lightning in Sunday night's storm and knocked into the street. A large tree was also blown down in front of No. 52 West Thirty-third-st.

STANDARD OIL DEAL DENIED.

J. D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, said yesterday that there was no truth in the dispatch from Berlin that the Standard Company had entered into a combination with European refiners to control the trade in Europe.
